

Title of Sample Abstract

Frederick Hoffman*, Madeline Gonzalez, Florida Atlantic University

The abstract is meant to convey enough information about the talk for people to make an informed decision about whether to attend it, and in many cases to enable participants to request copies of the papers. We strive for uniformity of appearance and attractiveness. An abstract in which most of the space is occupied by the title, authors, and detailed addresses is not very attractive.

Keywords: format, size, information content